Personality is a peculiar thing. It is constantly changing, and yet it is basically the same. Personality determines the actions of each day and every individual.

Just as the world changes with the seasons of nature, our personalities pass through four main stages: childhood, adolescence, adulthood, and old age.

Our high school years can also be compared to the seasons of nature and of life.

Freshmen are the spring. They are uncertain as to what the strange world of high school holds for them. They act childish at times, perhaps only to cover up their doubts.

While a little more sure in their way of thinking and acting, sophomores still possess many of their freshman traits. They can be compared with the summer — older than a child, yet too young to be fully aware of the problems facing them as adults.

Junior year usually finds more mature and steady individuals. During the autumn, many minds reach maturity in that definite plans for the future are made. Juniors are more settled and more aware of used-to-be strange new high school world. Finally on the ladder of the seasons, we approach winter. Here we find the seniors, seemingly calm and serene — far above the level of confusion. However, they are like winter — stately and mature on the outside, but, just as the coming spring lies in wait under the winter snows, so the seniors have an inner anxiety that cannot be quenched until they hear the strains of the graduation march as they go, one by one, decked in caps and gowns, to receive a certificate — the reward for their four years of high school work. As Shelley said "If winter comes, can spring be far behind."

The calendars which are used throughout this book, represent the minor changes of our everyday life; the little, seemingly insignificant happenings that usher us gradually from one season to the next, whether it be in nature, life, or our high school world.

WE HEREBY DEDICATE

If a teacher were to be judged by his teaching outside of the classroom as well as in the classroom, one teacher would certainly be among the leaders. Besides teaching Speech and English, he has worked with the Student Council for many years as sponsor, and has directed school plays. His relationship and friendliness toward all of the students, are appreciated by everyone. Many students recognize him only as one of the chaperones at the dances; nevertheless, he is at least familiar to nearly every student at Washington High. He was once called "Mr. School Spirit himself," since he has done tremendous work toward promoting school spirit.

Hence, in appreciation for all he has done to better Washington High, we proudly dedicate this annual to Mr. Verne Cook.

EFFICIENT HANDS HOLD

In his fourth year as superintendent of schools in the Glendale District Mr. Wes Townsend has won the respect and admiration of students and faculty for his fine work. We at Washington would like to take this opportunity to thank Mr. Townsend for his help in making WHS a better school, and we hope to be privileged to have him at the head of the helm for many years to come.

Mr. W. Fred Miller
Curriculum
Coordinator

Mr. W. M. Gemmell
Business
Manager

Mr. L. L. Burchett
Superintendent of Business and Grounds

Mr. Bob E. Crouch
Athletic Director

THE REINS OF WHS

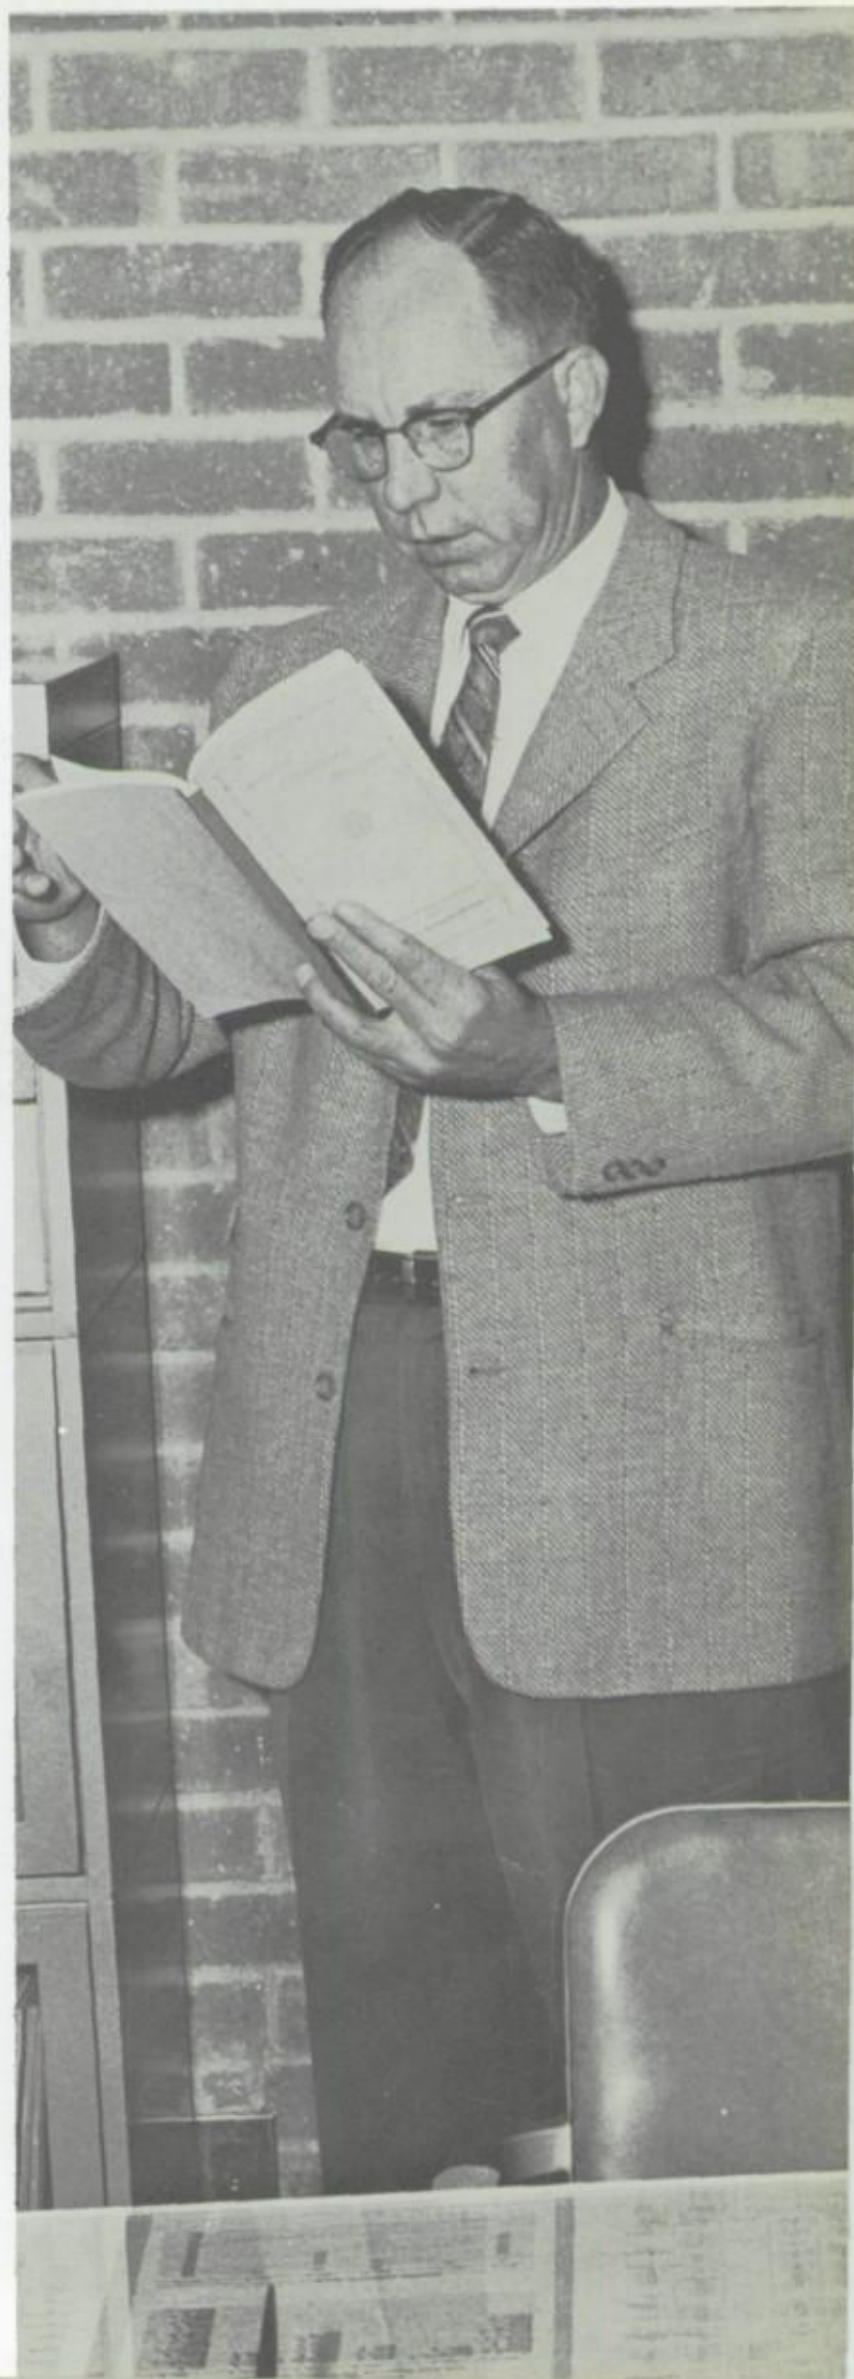

Mr. Wayne Heffelfinger, assistant principal in charge of student services, checks over the week's expenditures.

Mr. William Berry, assistant principal in charge of special services, works out a student's curriculum change.

Principal E. M. Zinser has guided WHS since 1955 when it first opened its doors. This year, he will see the graduation of the first freshman class of WHS. This is truly a great occasion in the history of any school, and in the life of any principal. Mr. Zinser has done so much for WHS during its first four years of existence. Washington is very grateful and proud of its principal.

SEVEN SUPPLY OUR NOURISHMENT

The WHS Cafeteria averages approximately 500 meals a day, and the snack bar provides from 250 to 300 students daily with a light lunch. The Government sets up a standard for the cafeteria to follow. This standard requires a minimum of 2 oz. protein, 3/4 cups fruit and/or vegetables, one teaspoon butter per student, one slice of bread, and a half pint of milk. The cafeteria staff is, left to right, Mrs. Nona Brown, Manager, Mrs. Dortha Spranger, Mrs. Dorothy Hansen, Mrs. Wilma Nelson, Mrs. Lucille Kaleke, Mrs. Bertha Sinanovic, and Mrs. Arlene Troyer, manager of the snack bar.

WHILE TEN MAINTAIN OUR SCHOOL

WHS has ten custodians who keep the campus clean and beautiful, keep the class rooms clean, and keep the equipment in working condition. Besides this, many of the custodians drive the school buses. The custodians are, back row, Mr. Don Fisher, Mr. William McCurry, Mr. Bob Burns, Mr. Joe Aguilera, and Mr. Clint Davidson; front row are Mr. Larry Sherrick, Mr. Jud Simpson, head custodian, Mr. Blas Chevez, Mr. James McCann, and Mr. Glen Schoenstein.

THESE FIVE GUIDE US

Vice-President

Tim Moore

The student council officers are elected every spring by the vote of the student body. Two weeks of petitioning the student body for signatures is spent before the elections. Candidates must receive no less than 10% of the student body's signatures.

Recording Sec.

Dawn Lander

President

Jim Gallup

The student council holds a meeting once every week to discuss all of the problems which have been brought to the attention of the council. These are either voted on at the meeting, or taken to the required classes for discussion.

The student council passes all requests for the social events of the school. They work with the administration in passing and enforcing regulations regarding campus manners.

Corresponding Sec.

Peggy Childs

Every required class elects one representative and one alternate for the student council. These representatives represent their class in all votes and discussions which take place at the meetings, then they report the decisions to their class. Thus everyone takes an active part in the student council, although not always direct.

Treasurer

Gene Arthur

WITH THE HELP OF MANY

Those representing the Sophomores in student council are, sitting, Elizabeth Harper, Mary Ida Stell, Beth Mitchell, Nancy Wol-pers, Sue Le Gorio, Gail Ingerman, Patty Kovach, Sandy Young, and Bonnie Abott; standing, Bob Acedo, Duane Vild, Dean Green, Bill Dotterer, Jim Grant, Johnny Rogers, Van Runyon, John Hall, Dennis Hickson, and Jeff Smith.

Miss Jeannette Green was chosen by the student body of WHS to be co-sponsor of the student council with Mr. V. Cook.

AND THE SUPERVISION OF TWO.

Representing the Senior class are, sitting, Donna Burham, Carol Swartz, Diane Wolpers, Roberta Acedo, and Rosie Pike; standing, Dick Porter, J. D. Bowin, Tom Anderson, Hal Lowe, and Don Noller.

Mr. Verne Cook, along with Miss Green, is sponsor for the student council. He and Miss Green were elected by secret ballot at the time of the student body officers election.

MUSICAL WORLD

W.H.S. BAND

Under the able direction of Mr. Clarence Shaw Washington's Band has made many advances this year. The membership has increased and many of those students spend much of their spare time before and after school in the band room bettering themselves at their particular instruments.

The members of the intermediate and beginning bands spent the year preparing themselves to be able to play in the advanced band next year.

Mr. Clarence Shaw is not only teacher, but friend and advisor to band and students.

They planned all of the activities that the entire orchestra enjoyed this past year.

Washington's fine marching band has had a busy and fruitful year participating in the half-time ceremonies at most of the football games. They also received an superior rating at Tucson band day.

BAND AND ORCHESTRA

"MUSIC IS THE UNIVERSAL

The Washington High Chorus is made up of five chorus classes. These classes are Intermediate Girls, Advanced Girls, Beginning Mixed, Advanced Mixed, and Aca-pella. Since Mr. Philip Shaw started directing the chorus in 1956, the membership has increased to ap-proximately 176. The choruses not only learn to sing songs of various types, but also study music theory. Taking music dictation in tone and rythm is one of the phases of music theory that is studied. Sight reading is also a point of serious study. Recordings from several famous operas, or taps of the Firstone Hour are often played in class, and a history of either the opera, or the performers is read. Often, pictures and slides of various famous singers are shown, and films of the Bell Tele-phone Hour are shown. These are a few of the many ways in which music is made more interesting and valuable.

The Harmonaires featuring Kelly Brown, John Bruman, Bob Jacobsen, and Bill Leighton, performed at all the concerts this year, as well as at several grade schools in the district. The quartet was formed last year by Mr. Philip Shaw, and has continued its harmony this year.

The combined choruses sing at three special times during the school year. From left to right are: top row, Mr. Philip Shaw, Bill Leighton, Jack Dees, John Komada, Bill Chester, Rick Grashel, Dick Francis, Ann Kolasinski, Priscilla Foster, Diane Mathewson, Joan Christiansen, Judy Campbell, Dru Huffman, Carol Cooksey; fourth row, Bob Jacobsen, Gerold Horton, Wally Thrash, Mike Webb, Bill Dotterer, Dean Larson, Janet Malone, Dottie Sectrick Margie White, Beverly Bowlin, Juanito Kants, Pat Jensen Sue Klempt, Aloise Harter, Nancy Quinn; third row, George Lamley, Ray Squires, Leon Saffle, Gordon Parker, Kelley Brown, Johnny Bruman, Stevie Collins, Janet Ray, Carolyn Andreson, Lina Moore, Sandy Simons, Donna Lee Butte, Joan Bullis, Jan Heard, Betty Krause; second row, Peter Schoenburg, Wayne Huff, Terry Parker, Peter Richardt, John Peattie, Sherry Vaughn, Judy Niel-son, Jacque Lincoln, Jacque Chelpka, Roxanne Lindner, Judy Troyer, Cheryl Strassenberg, Suellen Brazil, Dorothy Reddock, Ester Babb, Linda Conner, Andrea Madsen, Pat Noble; first row, Donald Keutz, Gilbert Clark, Dickie Bogue, Gerry Pease, Gary Williamson, Carmen Marsteen, Mary Burns, Rose Baca, Joyce Kilus, Nancy Wolpers, Donella Sprinkle, Jonell Wilkerson, Janet Ashworth, Mary Gooch.

LANGUAGE OF MANKIND"

... LONGFELLOW

Another musical group at WHS, is made up of Gil Clark, John Peattie, Leon Saffle, and Wally Thrash. They have chosen the name of The Stair Steps. They delight their audiences with novelty numbers. At the Christmas concert, Dec. 18, they presented their song in German. Their other performances have been equally entertaining.

The Washington High Chorus has done many things this year which have given them the opportunity to use the knowledge gained in chorus. Three concerts were presented at WHS, the fall concert, the annual Christmas concert, and the spring concert. In addition to this, the Acapella Choir and the Advanced Girls' Chorus sang from the roof top of Hanny's department store during the Christmas season. The Advanced Girls made a tape of Christmas music which was played on the radio, and the Acapella Choir sang on television. The Sextets and Quartets have sung to grade school assemblies, fashion shows, and the Washington Women's Club. Such have been the achievements of the WHS Chorus during the school year 1958-59.

Each chorus elects four officers who maintain order in the classroom, take the role, and assist Mr. Philip Shaw in all things concerning the choruses. Top row are, presidents, Kelly Brown, Barbara Cook, Linda Conner, and Beverly Bradley; third row, vice-presidents, Silvia Polk, Pam Jurgenson, and Diane Smith; second row, secretary-treasurers, Roxanne Lindner, Marilyn Schiedat, Stevie Collins, Penny McKean; first row, Patty O'Neill, Jonell Wilkerson, Peggy Redick, and Gloria Lopez.

Mr. Philip Shaw has been directing the WHS chorus since 1956. Since then, the chorus has almost doubled its size.

ACTIVITIES

DELORES BURGER

Initiation time arrived on campus in September to start off the new school year. Thadia Moore, Brenda Orr, Donna Kershner, Jacquie Clifford, Penny Gilliam, and Karen Gray are dressed in the styles of the "Roaring Twenties" for G.A.A. initiation.

"THIRTY DAYS HAS SEPTEMBER"

Oops! It has happened again. Another freshman, Ed Hart, drops his books on his way to class.

Mr. E. Murray is helping Barbara Cook decide on a schedule for the coming year.

We want a touchdown! That is the war cry of Washington High School fans as they cheer their football team on to victory.

It's a bargain! Only one small nickel for newspaper. John Bachert is giving Judy Larson his five cents for the Washington High School Ram Page. Others wait patiently for their turn.

Charlaine Majors, Linda Hardick, and Sandy Ritchie pose to show off the new chemise style the girls wore this year.

Mr. Rehorst, U.S. Government teacher, studies the constitution with his class. Shown left to right are Ray Perkins, Jim Blair, and Corky Donaldson.

Tom Anderson looks happy about his grades. He studied diligently and was rewarded.

Report card time again! Marilyn Hafler, Bob Karns, Mary Lou Arredondo compare grades during a break between classes.

Oh! Oh! Jim Combs doesn't look so happy. He will have to work harder next six weeks.

Sherry Vaughn, Will Gromes, Gordon Smith, Norma Butler, and Jerry Heffelfinger are all mighty proud of their letter sweaters. Many students have worked hard during the years to earn their sweaters.

Like many other students, Roxanne Lindner enjoys her lunch hour. It is a time for students to relax and discuss the day's happenings.

Carolyn Henderson, Stephanie Marsh, and Donna MacDonald found that the Junior class play was hard work, but lots of fun.

"OUT OF THE FRYING PAN . . ."

AT CHRISTMAS PLAY
AND MAKE GOOD CHEER
FOR CHRISTMAS COMES
BUT ONCE A YEAR

Ann Turner, Carl Fosdick, Sandy Reill, Rusty Holland, Diane Loretz, Judy Hatcher, and Karl Lindbloom decorate the Christmas tree that helped spread the Christmas spirit at Washington High School.

The Christmas Formal was a big success this year. Linda Ratliff, Dale Vild, Doris Richardson, Elaine Edwards, and Arvid Burnham seem to be enjoying themselves as they dance to the music of White Christmas.

The decorations that Norma Butler, Karen Dashiell, Gordon Smith, Jeanne Miller, Jim Shirley, and Johnny Rothwell helped put up added to the atmosphere of the Christmas Formal. The decorations carried out the theme of Crystal Ball.

Caught primping during intermission at the dance were Jeanne Miller, Dawn Lander, and Sue Tesmer.

BACK TO SCHOOL!

Mr. Cook is always available when we need him. Besides working hard as an English teacher, he helps with many student activities.

A new innovation in the cafeteria this year was the milk machine. Karen Dashiell takes advantage of the machine, as many other students also did.

Folk dancing was one of the favorite activities of the girls in the physical education department. They learned dances of many countries, as well as American dances.

"ARSENIC AND OLD LACE"

The all important job of putting on make-up is expertly done by Mike Longstreth and Aline White as they prepare Arvid Burnham and Gary Adams to go on stage.

"Don't drink that elderberry wine," warns Dick Porter. Although Aunt Abby, played by Karin Carlson meant no harm when she tried to poison Ron Johnson's cup of wine. Dick feels he must rescue Ron from the clutches of death.

Surprise! Two sweet old ladies, Roxanne Lindner and Karin Carlson, are shocked when they see their nephew, Arvid Burnham, climbing through their window.

Several students wait in line to buy their lunch at the school snack bar. It offered sandwiches, candy, fruit, and ice cream to many students.

Y.O.B. week finds the girls on campus showing the boys proper manners and etiquette. Sharon Dick opens the door for Bill Leighton and holds his books at the same time.

FEBRUARY

Linda McEndree and Mary Ellen Collins help entertain by singing at the P.T.A. Talent Show. The P.T.A. Talent Show is a big event of the year for the student body.

Many W.H.S. students earned extra spending money working for the school in the cafeteria or, as Bill Kuchinski is doing, cleaning the class rooms after school.

Looks like Larry Farrell injured his foot during one of the baseball games. The team worked hard and practiced many hours, so they could represent our school well. From left to right are Coach Jensen, Jay Beecher, Larry Farrell, Gary Maynard, John Rothwell, and Earl Moon.

Eighth graders from Maryland, Orangewood, and Washington grade schools visited Washington High School and took a tour of the campus. Members of National Honor Society acted as guides. Tobi Guberman is shown leading a group from Maryland school.

Many of the valley high schools were represented in the Rodeo Parade this year. Washington High School added to the color of the parade with the band. Many students also rode on various floats, such as the Y.W.C.A. float.

The 'Western Spirit' invaded our campus in the form of western hats and cowboy boots. Darlene Cain, Jim Horton, Hal Yeckel, Don Richardson, and Jonell Wilkerson are admiring each other on their outfits.

A P R I L

Election time again! Dick Porter, Sandy Riell, and Peggy Childs are signing one of the many petitions that are circulated on campus.

Glenn Lundgren and Larry Lindner seem to be enjoying themselves as they attempt to make a pie in the Home Economics room.

All of the school plays were great successes, and the Spring Play was no exception. The cafetorium was filled to capacity by an audience who thoroughly enjoyed the excellent entertainment.

The campus of W.H.S. is a wonderful place to relax. Carolyn Flenner, Gail Gray, Larry Burdick, Chuck Bonortz, Gloria Lopez, and Pat Farrell take time out during lunch to sit and chat.

"AS FULL OF SPIRIT AS THE MONTH OF MAY"

As the school year comes to an end, Patty O'Neill, Anita Shingledecker, Clarence Campbell, Johnny Rothwell, and Sheridan Coates give a last look at our Ram's head, symbol of the spirit at Washington.

As the end of the school year nears, many students are seen cramming for semester exams. Larry Trapp, Glynis Hagel, and Mike Kramer seem engrossed in their studies.

Sharon Coutts, Wesley Bolin, and Marilyn Butler look on as Harold Lowe and Pat Gallup sign annuals.

"Ditch Day" has been long awaited by seniors who are anxious to have a last fling before going on to more serious matters. The seniors had a good time this year and this day will be another happy memory of their high school life.

MOVEMENTS IN RHYTHM

Denise Preston and Sandy Hudson are limbering with one of the many Modern dance exercises.

Each year the Girl's P.E. Department puts on a Dance Assembly. Practicing after school took many long hours to prepare for it.

Folk dances are fun. May Matsubari and Joanne Tanita are enjoying a German folk dance.

Modern dance exercises left many a sore muscle. The fourth hour P.E. classes demonstrate how these sore muscles were made.

BEHIND THE SCENES

Studying for a badminton test are: Jan Shelton, Charlene Heppler, Sandy Richardson and Drew Brown. P.E. is not all play.

*Jan

Mildred Perez is handing out badminton equipment to Bev Neuville, Grace Garcia, Pat Redick and Toby Miller.

Trying to get dressed in a crowded P.E. room is quite unique. May Matsubari and Mary Mallory are trying to get their clothes stuffed into their lockers and this is not easy either.

Priming in front of the mirror, after playing hard in P.E. are Elaine Faris, Sharon Coppernoll and Sharon Fogelman.

The Rams started off the season very well by edging the Carl Hayden Falcons by a narrow margin of 6-0. Both teams showed they lacked experience, but both teams showed plenty of desire. The Rams went winless the rest of the season, but the players gained experience and the desire to come from behind to win.

As in every sport there are those few who give a little more and never let down no matter what the odds are. Outstanding in the backfield was Gordon Smith, who did some brilliant running. Gordon's gains were usually large but he pounded out many of those short gains when it counted. On the line Gary Maynard did outstanding work. At the first of the year Manuel Aja said, "Gary is a 48 minute threat on offense and defense" and he certainly proved it by having more tackles and blocked kicks than any other Ram player.

Our hats go off to Head Coach Manuel Aja and Assistant Coach Eddie Sine for doing a tremendous job with the Rams their first year here. Our hats also must come off to the students and faculty for keeping up the good school spirit and boosting our boys' morale when they needed it most.

A FIGHTING TEAM MAKES THE SCHOOL PROUD

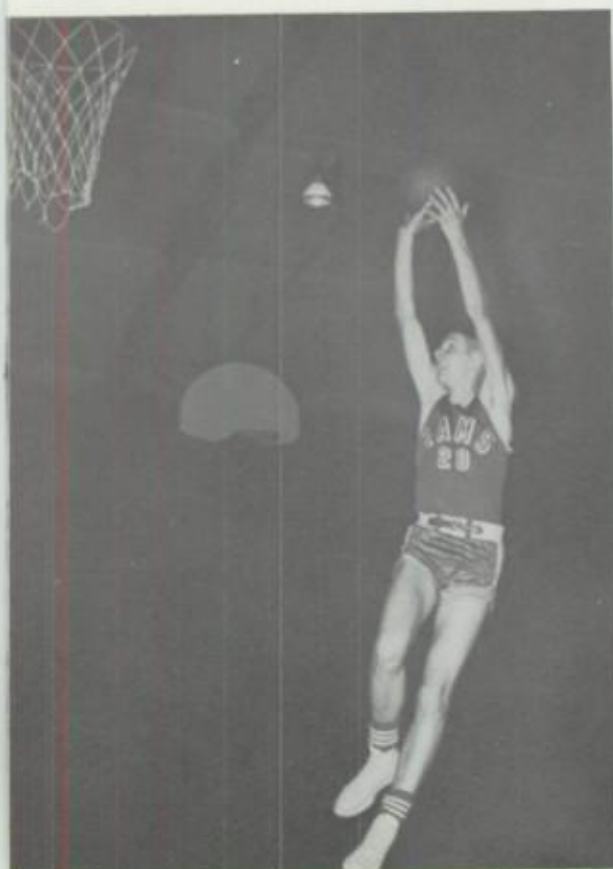

Congratulations! Yes sir, congratulations to the Washington Ram's basketball team. In their first year in double A they were chosen as the sixteenth team to go to the state tournament. They were knocked out of the tournament by the new state champions, Phoenix Union, in the early rounds of the tournament.

Even though the Rams had a record of four wins and thirteen losses Coach George Greene said, "it was a very successful year." The Ram's highlight came when they played West High and lost in the last minute eleven to nine.

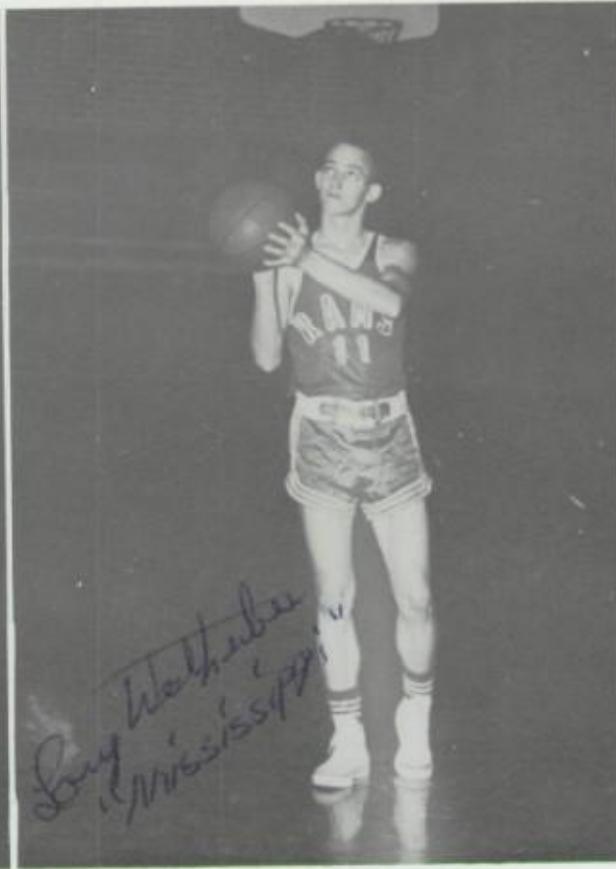

The Rams will lose only five seniors and gain some very good juniors.

Jim Shirley was chosen by his teammates as the outstanding player of the year.

Eddie Enriquez puts man into pinning position in match against Phoenix Central.

"WRESTLE"

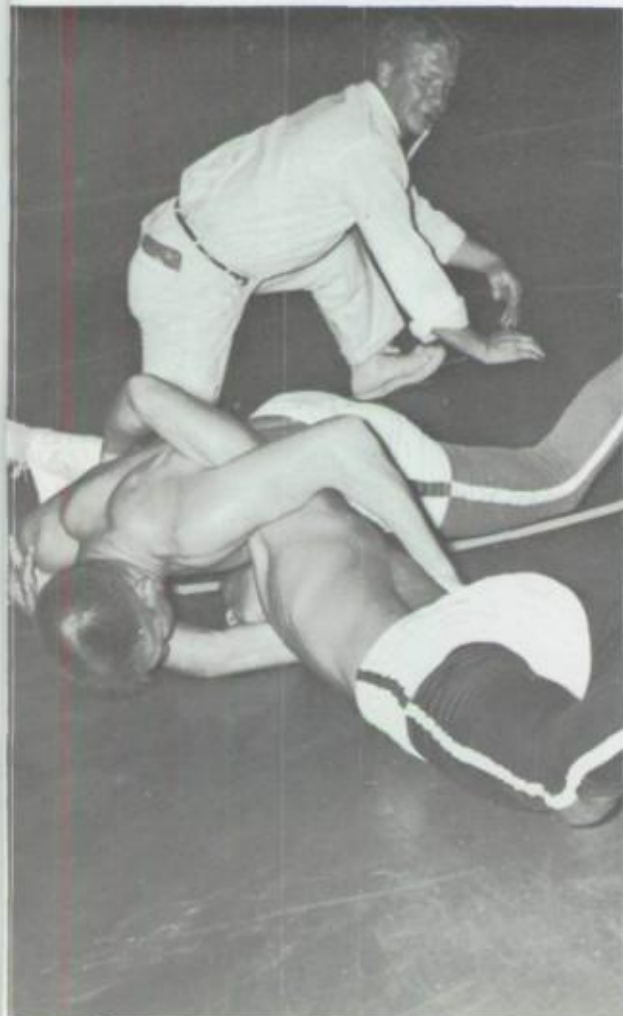

The Washington Rams wrestling team took State AA Championship for the first time since Washington High has been in existence. No other team at Washington High has been able to match this feat. They beat such outstanding teams as Phoenix Union, Glendale, Yuma, South, and North High Schools.

The Rams had only one individual state champion and that was Tommy Enriquez. It was a well rounded team taking seconds and thirds to pile up 54 points which won the state championship.

The Rams will be losing five seniors this year, Jerry Heffelfinger, Wendell Gonzales, Gary Maynard, Hubert Thomas, and Eddie Enriquez. This won't leave the Rams empty handed because they will have such outstanding wrestlers as Bill Dayton, John Nelson, Tommy Enriquez (state champ), Bradley Rollins, and Chuck Ebbert.

Coach Czeslaw Schmidt and his squad are to be congratulated on making history at W. H. S.

Chuck Ebbert (top) tries desperately to get his opponent into pinning position.

John Nelson rolls opponent on his back and into pinning position.

'THEN THERE WERE NINE'

Do it again! Do it again! Yells the student body at Washington High School. They want the Ram's baseball team to bring home the double A championship trophy like the Ram's wrestling team did two months ago.

The Rams are tied for first place with north Phoenix. The two teams clashed Friday, March 26 for first place. Washington, in its first year in double A, is doing very well having two wins and no losses in conference play.

The Rams have been building for four years and now field a senior starting lineup. Coach Harvey Jensen isn't too worried about next year as he has a lot of good boys that will come up from J.V. ball.

For the "Miss,"

Hay,

I've had more fun this year, since I met you, than I've had any other time in my life. You did what a lot of people thought impossible. I didn't ditch a day of school after the 4-H formal. You'll be a big junior next year, upper-classmen to the freshmen & sophomores, but not to us big (seniors!) I'll probably graduate next year. & I know I'll hate to leave just like all the rest. I'll say I wish I had it all to do over again. Well I guess we ^(seniors) will be leaving LHS to a great bunch of seniors next year anyway. So you'll take good care of the Class AA state wrestling trophy & the class AA Baseball trophy will win next year? Hay, I don't know what the future holds for us, but if the past & present has anything to do with it, I don't know what else it could be than great & wonderful. You're the sweetest, nicest girl I've ever met. & you've got a great mother & father & a real cute sister & a brother that's going to be a great baseball player. I'd like you and yours. I give you all my love & best wishes always. Love, Andy-60-
